Welcome! Thank you for choosing to become a part of Little Specialty Shop! Each time you bring items in to consign with us, we will go through them choosing only what we have a market for. Our customers preferences must be our selection guideline.

We base prices on supply and demand. We will get the best possible price for you. You will receive 40% of the selling price on all clothing, décor, and footwear that you consign, and 50% on furniture items, less the buyers fee which is paid by the customer. We pay out at your convenience in cash or store credit at any time.

We will display your items for 60days. During this time, they may be subject to markdowns and/or sales.

We will do our best to safeguard your items however, we are not responsible for damage, loss, or theft.

Any items found with stains, missing buttons, tears, etc will be donated without further notice.

If you would like to retrieve unsold items, please call us by the 60th day of your consignment period. We require 48 hours notice to pull your items for you. Items not picked up by the 60th day, become the property of Little Specialty Shop to dispose of donate, or leave on the sales floor at our discretion.

Any monies not collected within 1 year will be forfeited.

I have read the above and agree to the terms of consignment at Little Specialty Shop.
